A Day with Crispian Steele-Perkins:

Come to All Saints' Church, High Street, Banstead on Saturday 26th April 2008 for 2 special events.

3.00 p.m. Workshop / Masterclass

Crispian Steele-Perkins will be running a workshop / masterclass for trumpet players. Whether you are a beginner or more advanced player, come and play to Crispian. You will be given friendly advice and encouragement. This is a rare opportunity to benefit from the experience and expertise of one of the world's finest trumpeters. Crispian plays with Early Music groups; was for many years principal trumpet of the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra; played on the soundtracks of the 'James Bond' films; and was the soloist for the theme music of 'The Antiques Roadshow'. Ian le Grice will be available to accompany or you may bring your own accompanist.

7.30 p.m. Trumpet & Organ Recital

Crispian Steele Perkins (trumpet) will be joined by Ian le Grice (organ) for a full length concert during which Crispian will play a wide range of trumpets of different shapes and sizes. He will also demonstrate how the instrument works.
