Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH, BANSTEAD

Vulnerable Adults

The following guidelines apply whenever adults who may be vulnerable take part in church organised events and activities. These include:

- During worship
- Day trips or outings
- Home or Pastoral Visiting/Home Communion

Leadership and Supervision

One person must be designated Group Leader for every activity or event.

It is the Group Leader's responsibility to clarify with the worker or volunteer their roles and responsibilities regarding their relationships with vulnerable adults with whom they may be in contact. Regular supervision for staff and volunteers will ensure their work is monitored and also offers the opportunity for them to raise any issues.

For specific activities or groups for vulnerable adults, a minimum of two adults must always be present, and one of these should be the designated Group Leader, however a risk assessment may well indicate the need for an enhanced level of supervision and staffing for a particular activity.

Running Activities and Events

Parishes are encouraged to create an environment where all vulnerable adults are encouraged to participate and contribute. The Group Leader should have overall responsibility for the planning, supervision and conduct of the event or activity, and should ensure that:

- The activity, event and transport arrangements are covered by insurance. This should include public liability.
- The vulnerable adults and/or their carers are consulted in order to identify their specific needs, and how these can best be met.

- Vulnerable adults are informed about the aims and objectives of any trips or activities and the dates, duration and details of venue and travel arrangements.
- Vulnerable adults are given choices about where they sit, and what activities they participate in, and offered assistance in such a way as to maximise their independence.
- Vulnerable adults are given a chance to do things that other people might take for granted.
- Vulnerable adults are given the best quality of support and protection.
- The needs of carers are taken into consideration, and they are offered breaks and practical assistance if feasible.

Home Visiting (including Residential homes)

There are some church activities where home visits are an integral part of the work.

In these circumstances it is essential that the following safeguards are put in place to protect both the vulnerable adult and the worker/volunteer.

Wherever possible, workers should avoid lone working with a vulnerable adult.

- A risk assessment should be undertaken before visiting someone in their own home and if there are any concerns or risks, careful consideration should be given as to whether the visit is absolutely necessary, and whether another adult should be present.
- The worker/volunteer should always carry a mobile phone on a home visit, and ensure that someone else within the activity/group knows about the arrangement, including times and location.
- Don't call unannounced – call by arrangement, if appropriate telephoning the person just before you go.
- Carry identification, or a note of introduction from your church at all times.

- Rather than give out personal information, give those you visit a central contact point within the church.
- Be clear about boundaries – keep to agreed limits on how much time you will spend with someone and how often you visit.
- Be clear about what behaviour is acceptable – and what is not – from the vulnerable adult.
- In the event of any problems, seek advice from the Parish Safeguarding Representative and/or Diocesan Safeguarding Adviser.

Transport

Checks on the Driver

It is recommended that all those who drive vulnerable adults on church organised activities should be over 25 years and should have held a full current driving licence for over two years.

Driving licences should be checked to make sure that the volunteer does not have any recent or serious driving convictions. Where a driver has penalty points on their licence, the PCC will need to decide on a case by case basis whether or not it considers the driver to be suitable for a volunteer driver role.

If the volunteer is regularly driving vulnerable adults they must complete a DBS Application.

Checks on the vehicle

The vehicle needs to be safe. A MOT certificate should be requested from the driver if the vehicle is over three years old.

Cars must have front and rear seatbelts and all passengers must wear seatbelts.

Passengers are legally responsible for ensuring that they are wearing a seat belt.

Sports cars, vans and off-road vehicles could well be unsuitable for taking passengers. The vehicle must be easy for the passengers to access.

Insurance

All cars that carry vulnerable adults should be comprehensively insured, and the owner of the vehicle is responsible for arranging this.

It is recommended that vehicle owners inform their insurance company in writing that they will be driving during church activities, otherwise the policy could be invalidated, which would result in the driver being personally liable for any damage or injuries sustained in an accident.

Voluntary drivers should not be paid anything more than expenses actually incurred, because it could invalidate the insurance policy if the drivers are making a 'profit'.

Photographs

For vulnerable adults, images should only be used for a purpose which is explained to them, and to which they give their recorded and preferably signed consent, i.e. they understand and agree. They should see the photograph before being asked to give consent. All images must respect the dignity of the person being photographed. If the vulnerable adult cannot give informed consent, the images should not be used, unless the individual cannot be identified from the photograph.

Storage of Images

Be clear about whether the image is to be retained for further use. Store the image securely, and ideally store consent forms with the image/s for future reference.

Good Practice Guidelines

- Pictures of vulnerable adults should not be taken without another adult present.
- The photograph/video should focus on the activity rather than a particular person, avoiding full face and body shots.
- Photographs submitted for publication where vulnerable adults are recognisable and there is insufficient evidence that their consent has been obtained should not be published. Permission should not be assumed, even if images have been submitted by parishes for publication.

- If at a church-related event vulnerable adults use cameras to take photos of each other they should be advised that these can be used for personal use only, and should not be displayed in any publicly accessible space, including on internet or web-based communication channels such as Facebook.

If you are approached by a reporter, photographer or film-crew who wants to use images from your parish, do emphasise that your policy is to obtain permission from the persons involved, and refer them to the Diocesan Communications Adviser.
